Resolutions Passed

Bill Holton Re-elected President Fish & Game

Four resolutions came before the general meeting of the Vulcan and District Fish and Game Association meeting Monday night and were passed for presentation at the Alberta Fish and Game convention at Banff, February 2, 3 and 4 of 1960.

The resolutions are, 1 - Whereas spring fishing catches are found to be in heavy spawn, which seriously depletes our stock of fish and that similar conditions are found in fall catches; Hereby be it resolved that a closed fishing season be enforced from September 15 to June 15 on all streams in Alberta.

2 - Whereas our present hatcheries are obviously inadequate to properly stock our waters and while we realize a great deal of money has been spent on the research of Bass; Hereby be it resolved that further study be given with the object of stocking our potholes with Bass.

3 - Be it resolved that the County of Vulcan be placed in a protected area until such time as the Deer population is large enough to warrant harvesting.

4 - Be it resolved that action be taken to further protect the beaver in the Foothills area. (This stems from the situation in other parts of the province where oil exploration companies have sought permission to rid beavers of certain areas. Also in the foothills certain ranchers are protesting the grazing land under water as a result of beaver dams.)

A fifth resolution was withdrawn as it is already on file from the provincial body. It deals with the problem of pollution of the Bow River downstream from Calgary and the need either for stronger legislation to curb this problem or more strict enforcement of existing laws.

A resolution to have a badge or numbered patch to be issued with the licence and worn on hunting jackets for identification, was defeated. Nominations were called for the positions of president, vice-president and secretary of the association. Bill Holton, who has been president since the clubs inception, was returned for his third term in office. Max Kehr, who previously handled the upland game committee, was named vice-president while Wes Fulton was returned as secretary.

Many entries have been turned in for the Pheasant Derby and Derby Chairman Kehr claims the 22 1/2 inch tail feathers displayed in a recent Calgary paper would not take first prize in this league.

Don McCord from Milo reported lots of geese in the east country but hunters are finding them extremely difficult to spot as they don't seem to feed steadily at any one point. Part of the big lake is still open, providing a haven for many ducks.

Big game chairman, Carl Steiner reported he is still expecting more entries in Deer Trophy competition. Officer Bert Freeman was at the meeting but was unable to give, at present, the number of game animals brought out of the foothills check points up to the present.

Mr. Freeman was not able to verify or comment at this time on the rumours that some livestock has been lost in the country recently due to hunters.

THE WEATHER

High winds last Saturday were followed Sunday night by snow, which now covers the ground to a depth of about two inches. Somewhat warmer weather is predicted for Wednesday, with the mercury climbing to about 40 above.

No one knows where tuberculosis started but it goes back as far as recorded history. Some authorities believe that it spread from the Mediterranean to northern Europe with Caesar's legions.

L.B. Hospital Ratepayers To Vote On Medical Insurance

Ratepayers of the Little Bow Municipal Hospital District, which includes taxpayers of the villages of Carmangay and Champion, will vote on Friday, Dec. 2, to give their approval to or disapprove a proposal to have all the ratepayers covered under a group medical insurance plan.

Ratepayers are now provided with doctor service under a municipal contract. The new medical insurance plan, if approved, will give ratepayers free choice of doctor anywhere in Canada or the United States and will also provide X-ray and laboratory service for outpatients.

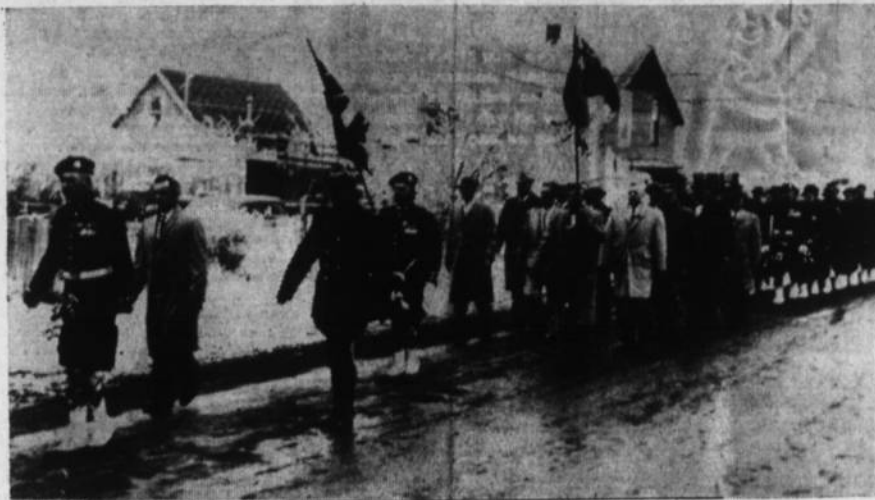

The proposed medical insurance plan will cost approximately $80 a year for a family with dependent children, of which cost about one-half will be paid by the Hospital District, bringing the cost to a family down to about $40 a year. For a single person, the cost will be about $12 a year. The hospital district's share of the cost will be met from the present four-mill levy, which would remain unchanged.

Residents other than ratepayers can be covered under the group medical insurance plan, if it is adopted, by paying the full rate of about $80 a year for a family or $24 a year for a single person.

Dr. R. M. Hvozdecki of Carmangay, who presently serves the ratepayers under contract, will remain at Carmangay in private practice if the medical insurance plan is approved by the ratepayers and put into effect.

Polling places for the vote on Friday, Dec. 2, will be at the Village Office, Carmangay, and at the Village Office, Champion, and will be open from 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. on that date. J. W. Nielson is Returning Officer.

As part of the annual Remembrance Day service the Legion, "A" Company, Calgary Highlanders and Cadets parade to the Cenotaph in the Memorial park for a short wreath-laying service. The parade is pictured above returning to the dispersal point following the ceremony.

Lions Observe Charter Night

One of the most successful and best attended charter nights of the Vulcan Lions Club was held Wednesday evening, Nov. 16, at the Vulcan Lodge Hall. Over 150 Lions and their wives were present and every club in the zone was represented.

At the banquet, the invocation was given by Fred Anderson, toast to the Queen by Bill Richardson, singing was led by Ben Dann and the toast to the ladies by Martin Gottenberg was replied to by Mrs. Helen Giles, president of the Lionettes.

Lion President Stuart Campbell extended the official welcome and Deputy District Governor Elwood Myers was introduced. Guest of honor was Deputy District Governor Bob Seeley, whose short address was well received.

Bill Richardson was master of ceremonies for an entertaining program which consisted of an accordion solo by Brian Erickson, a girls' quartette number by Ann Jamison, Myrna Jamison, Margaret Giles and Valerie Richardson, a sleight-of-hand performance by Roy Spencer of Lethbridge and a men's quartet selection by Stuart Campbell, Earl Erickson, Skeez Christensen and Arthur Jones.

Dancing until 1:00 a.m. followed, with music by the Pickersgill orchestra.

Elected Vice-pres. Physiotherapists

At a two-day convention of the Physiotherapists and Masseurs Association of Alberta held in Calgary over the weekend, Mr. R. W. Beeston, physiotherapist of High River and Vulcan was unanimously elected vice-president. Main speaker for the first day of the convention, Mr. Beeston lectured the large gathering on the subject, "Lower Back treatment."

Demonstrating the latest approved techniques on a chronic case, Mr. Beeston stated that lower back conditions were the second highest cause of loss of time on the American continent, and urged the association to launch an all-out educational program to acquaint the general public with the benefits to be derived from physiotherapy, which, he stated, was the only natural healing art approved by the medical profession throughout the entire world. Mrs. Beeston accompanied her husband.

Share Cost With County?

Town Offers To Pay Half Cost Ambulance Service

A committee representing the Town of Vulcan council is to meet with County of Vulcan officials to see if arrangements can be made for continuing the local ambulance service.

The Town has been notified that the ambulance service, operated by Vulcan Motors Products, will be discontinued in the near future. The need for such a service in the County area is obvious and the Town will offer to assume one-half the cost of the purchase, housing and operation of the ambulance.

Other business transacted at the regular November town council meeting included the setting of the regular meeting night on the second Monday of each month; the sale of Lot 13, Block 16 to Harvey Walker for $200; the purchase of a jack hammer for the sum of $944.52; and discussion regarding the purchase of a street sweeper, with the secretary being instructed to obtain specifications and prices from various companies.

Shower Honors Dorothy Hilz

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held Wednesday afternoon in the E.U.B. Church parlors, in honor of Dorothy Hilz.

Contests were arranged by Mrs. Albert Schlierman and Mrs. Emil Hartung. A decorated basket, piled high with gifts was brought in by Kathy Schlierman and Peter McNiven. The gifts were presented to the bride-elect by Mrs. Stan Munton, on behalf of those assembled. Assisting Dorothy in opening her many gaily wrapped gifts were her mother, Mrs. Alex Hilz, of Calgary and her sister, Miss Violet Hilz of Lethbridge.

The guest of honor very graciously thanked everyone and invited them to visit her in her new home in Lethbridge, where her husband is stationed with the RCMP. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Henry Lebsack and Mrs. Henry Hilz.

Lethbridge Rink Wins Jackpot

The large crowd of curling enthusiasts who witnessed the various games of the Jackpot Spiel in Vulcan Saturday night and Sunday were high in their praise of the excellent curling displayed by many of the outstanding rinks of Southern Alberta.

Jack Lebeau, who started his curling career in Vulcan, came back after an absence of 25 years to capture top money with a rink from Lethbridge of Don Cameron, John Phillips and Joe Seaman. He topped Howard Spaeth's quartet of Spaeth, Ivan Haga, Jim Jensen and Blaine Middleton in a thrilling extra-end final.

Winner of the consolation event was the J. Hurnanen rink from Carmangay who are always consistent winners at Vulcan jackpots. They defeated W. Hartman rink of Lethbridge in their final.

Some of the highly rated rinks who attended and didn't make the money were Hugh Brown, now playing out of Calgary; Ron Northcott, ex-Vulcanite, also from Calgary; Aubrey Gore with his Bassano rink, skipped by Norm Dalsto; Ted Seney's foursome of Blackie who won a tense struggle 5-4 over John Wolfe of Vulcan.

Farmers' Co-operation Required

Rural Fire Protection Assoc'n Seen Necessary

The formation of a Rural Fire Protection Association for the Vulcan district will be attempted at a meeting of the Board of Trade Thursday night, Nov. 24, at 8:00 p.m. in the Legion Hall. Letters have been sent to 300 district farmers and a strong representation of business men is expected to go into this and other important business facing the town.

The Rural Fire Protection Association topic, for some time under discussion, was brought to a head recently when Fire Chief Bob Johnston informed town council that one of the two fire trucks, the ancient Ford model, had reached the state where it was almost completely inoperative with the result the overhauled GMC truck could not be sent on country calls as no assured fire fighting equipment would be in town to handle local emergencies.

A four-man body composed of Board of Trade president Douglas Galbraith, Evan Williams, chairman of Agriculture Committee of the Board of Trade, Mayor Lundy Findlay and Bob Johnston was set up to plan a course of action and it is hoped the outcome of the meeting and subsequent support from farmers will see a new fire fighting unit replacing the Ford truck, which would be town maintained and stored, and manned by members of the Vulcan Fire Department.

The area of the proposed Association has not yet been defined but it would likely extend east to the west edge of the district covered by the similar Lomond Association and west to the Little Bow River. The Vulcan Association would possibly include the Kirkcaldy area to the south and Ensign and possibly Brant to the north but exact definition lines will be one of the issues to be settled.

Cost of such a project cannot be given in accurate figures but in some of the approximately 17 other such organizations in Alberta the total has run to $7,200 or $7,800. It is felt that because of hose and other equipment already on hand, $5,000 may be sufficient in Vulcan's case. This might be broken down to around $45 per member and in some other Associations a charge of $3 per year or possibly no charge for the first several years has been experienced. Any one in the area to be covered not wishing to participate in the proposed plan would be under no obligation and would get response from the Association in the event of fire but would also be billed accordingly for the service rendered.

The whole success and cost per head of the Association will depend on the numbers interested in this type of protection and if it falls no assistance from the town can be given in future to country fire calls.

Fire Again Hits 3-Way Station

Fire has once more struck the 3-Way Service Station of Norman Scotney.

At mid-afternoon Tuesday of this week the Vulcan Fire Department was called to the temporary office and working quarters of the garage. A previous fire of Oct. 24, had razed the original garage and contents and a small frame building had been dragged near the gas pumps to serve while the new structure of cinder brick was being built.

Fire broke out when an oil heater used in the office was being filled. Oil over-flowed from the five-gallon tank attached to the heater and caught fire. Attendants tried to carry the heater outside but it was nailed to the floor and tipped over, causing rapid spread of flames. The fire department controlled the blaze and kept flames from the scorched pumps but quickly exhausted the 450 gallon water tank on the truck. While hose was being laid from across the tracks the fire increased and by the time the additional water supply was set up only the walls and roof were standing.

Mr. Scotney ran into more bad luck last weekend when the strong winds blew down several hundred cinder bricks forming a west wall on the garage currently under construction.

March 4—Tournament.

before losing an 11-ender to H. Spaeth 6-5.

A number of the games and final shots left players and spectators limp from excitement as every draw produced a game or two that wasn't decided until the last rock was thrown and some went extra ends before being decided by a superb shot, or a near miss.

Board of Trade Plans Events For Christmas Season

The coming Christmas season in Vulcan will be a brighter, happier one for children and more enjoyable for adults if the plans of the Vulcan and District are successfully carried out.

Following the pattern begun last year, the Christmas tree will again centre activities on the hotel intersection of town and it is the aim of the Board to assist in a decoration theme for individual businesses.

A panel of judges will be appointed to handle a new competition designed to promote home decoration and they will tour the town and award a prize to the best decorated dwelling. This event would also be open to persons from the country interested in entering.

Previous to the actual holiday season, the Board of Trade has also organized a Shopping Day set for Saturday, Dec. 10. This would take the form of the similar day held successfully last summer on the completion of pavement, which, through the special bargains or services offered by merchants, etc., the need and benefits of shopping at home may be emphasized to the public.

In conjunction with this Shopping Day a dance in the evening at the Vulcan Lodge Hall and a night of Bingo for those so inclined, will be planned for Dec. 10.

The Board's plans for future activity has extended into the new year. A two-day Building Clinic is being considered for the month of January while there definitely will be a three-day welding school near the end of March.

convention in Calgary last week. They were among the more than 200 insurance agents from all parts of the province who attended the two-day conference.

No Admittance! AFTOSA

Few are the countries of the world where the livestock owner does not live in dread of seeing the above notice tacked upon his gate. For he knows that if his animals become infected with this disease they will waste away and never regain normal weight and milk production.

He also knows that once aftosa hits the only way to stop it is to kill off all livestock in the entire infected area!

But the economic losses caused by this animal ill—formally named foot-and-mouth disease, but more commonly known as "aftosa"—are not limited to stock owners. Today aftosa is a world problem. Here are a few reasons why:

- Because aftosa control and eradication measures are expensive to governments.
- Because in a world where too many millions are already undernourished, aftosa is the number one cause of loss of animal protein.
- Because aftosa cuts down international trade by forcing aftosa-free countries to bar animal products coming from infected lands.

Only Australia, the Guianas, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, and the western hemisphere north of Panama are free of aftosa. Yet even these areas run danger of infection as the aftosa virus can be carried in bones, blood, milk and hides as well as fresh, dried, canned or even frozen meats.

Taxes National Economies
In stamping out six aftosa epidemics between 1900 and 1930, the United States suffered direct and indirect costs totalling almost $200 million. Therefore when aftosa broke out in Mexico in 1946, the U.S. found the need to protect its own livestock at one with its sympathy for a sister republic's plight. Both countries fought shoulder to shoulder for six years before aftosa was eradicated. The cost: $130 million to the U.S. and more than $500 million to Mexico.

In South America, Argentina alone estimates aftosa costs it $150 million a year.

When aftosa suddenly appeared in limited areas of Canada's Saskatchewan province in 1954 all shipment to the United States of Canadian breeder and feeder cattle was abruptly halted. In the few months before the outbreak was put down Canadian farmers lost millions of dollars of customary revenue.

Pan American Center Set Up
It was in recognition of aftosa's international dimensions that the 21 American Republics jointly founded the Pan American Foot-and-Mouth Disease Center on the outskirts of Rio de Janeiro in 1951.

Administered by the Pan American Sanitary Bureau, and financed through the Organization of American States' Technical Cooperation Program, the Center's purpose is to aid the countries in controlling and eventually eradicating aftosa from the hemisphere.

The Center trains anti-aftosa workers, provides the countries with consultants, organizes multi-national campaigns, furnishes reference laboratory and diagnostic services, and carries out research.

Center experts hope soon to produce a vaccine that will protect livestock for much longer periods than do any in present use. Such a vaccine could mean aftosa's eradication.

Rural Fire Protection Needed

A Rural Fire Protection Association, such as may be formed in the Vulcan district if sufficient interest is shown, appears to be the type of town and rural cooperative organization that would benefit all parties concerned.

The town of Vulcan has a normal complement of two fire engines and a brigade of 20 trained men on call. At one time, neither fire engine was allowed to leave the town limits, a rule that was later relaxed by the fire underwriters with the result that one pumper with a 450 gal. water tank and a crew has been able to respond to any rural fire calls within a reasonable distance.

Now, the older fire engine is completely inoperative. One engine must be kept in town at all times in accordance with fire underwriters regulations, so the fire department finds itself in the position of being unable to respond to country calls.

Rural Fire Protection Associations are being organized in many parts of the province and two or three are already organized in other parts of the County of Vulcan. In essence, the operation of such organizations is that the farmers in the area band together to purchase a fire fighting unit, which is located at a central town or village and primarily on call for fighting farm fires. The town or village houses and maintains the truck and supplies the crew, in return for which the fire truck is also available for fighting fires in the town or village. In the proposed organization for the Vulcan district, the cost would likely be less than normal, as hose, nozzles and other fire fighting equipment are already on hand.

In purchasing a fire truck under this plan, the farmers of a district are purchasing assurance that a fire fighting unit and trained crew are always available to fight farm fires. Spread over the majority of the farmers in the proposed district, the cost to each farmer is very small and is the final cost unless it is decided to charge an annual membership of two or three dollars to set up a depreciation fund. Farmers not wishing to participate in the scheme could call on the Association's truck to combat a fire, but would be billed at standard fire fighting charges.

Under the present circumstances, farmers in the immediate Vulcan district are without the protection of a proper fire fighting unit and the services of trained firemen. This is a matter of serious concern.

A meeting has been called for 8:00 p.m. Thursday night, Nov. 24, at the Legion Hall to discuss the matter and, if possible, organize a rural fire protection association in this district. There should be a good representation of both farmers and businessmen.

WHY A FALLOUT SHELTER?

A Fallout Shelter is NOT a blast shelter and should not be used as such. The shelter is for after the explosion. Therefore its design is more simple and less costly than that required for blast protection. Register now with J. Lundy Findlay for the first First-Aid Course of the season.

Home & School Regional Conference

The Vulcan Regional Conference of the Alberta Federation of Home and School Association was held in Vulcan, Nov. 12th. There were 42 members registered, representing 8 associations in the Vulcan-Taber district.

Mrs. M. Gallagher, Regional Director, called the meeting to order and introduced Dr. R. Kastings, a member of the Agric. Research Station in Lethbridge, Pres. of Lethbridge Dist. Council of H & S and a member of the Federation Commission studying the Cameron report. His topic was "Whose Responsibility Now?" — Introduction to Cameron Commission Study, Dr. Kastings informed the meeting that the home must take the responsibility in the development of character and attitude of the students. He said that all parents should be convinced that every child must be educated to the best of his ability; because the future of our youth and the level of education they achieve, depends wholly on parental and community attitude. Never before has our standard of living depended so much on a high education.

The Regional Director formed the meeting into buzz groups: the topic "Does our Present High School Program Suit the Needs of all Children?" Questions on this buzz session were handed into a panel for discussion. The panel was introduced and monitored by Mrs. R. V. McCullough, Pres. of the Alta. Federation of H & S Assoc. The panel consisted of Dr. R. Kastings, Mr. S. Simonson, School Ed. Chairman for the Alta. Federation of H & S; Mrs. G. Carmine, of the H & S Commission Study Committee; and Mr. D. Truss, Chairman of the Principals Assoc. in the Vulcan County and Principal of the Brant School. It was agreed by the panel, that because of the movement away from Agric. economy, there is a need for a greater range of occupations, therefore the educational system must adjust for these changes. Out of the discussion came the point from Dr. Kastings, that because of the 75% drop out of students before they obtain a Senior Matric, there is a great need for a diversified program. The panel stated that proper home attitude would go far in correcting this drop-out and that parents have the key to the education of their children by the enthusiasm in homes. Mr. Truss informed that provision must be made to educate, as far as they are able, the 5000 retarded children in Alta. He stated that the public cannot afford to miss any of those children who are gifted. Their needs must be identified and provision made for them.

Mr. Simonson gave a report on High School Service results in large centres as compared with small or rural centres. On the average, results in small schools, where 46% receive High School diplomas are much poorer than in large city schools or composite schools, where from 52% to 63% receive High School diplomas. It was agreed that an urbanized type of education must come to rural areas. The question of Community Colleges was raised and it was established that there is a great need for them in Alberta, to offer care of those students who have no chance of attending university due to financial or other difficulties.

The meeting was then dismissed for lunch, served by the Catholic Women's League and reconvened at 1:30 p.m., with Mrs. Gallagher introducing the guest speaker, Mrs. R. V. McCullough, who chose as her topic, "Our Responsibility in Developing Student Potential." Mrs. McCullough said there is a need for concern for DSP stated that 1/2 of the children starting school never complete high school and 1/2 of the highest potential never complete high school. She stated that DSP depends on four things: Ability, motivation, opportunity and character; which follows that it is the responsibility of parents and home and school members to attempt to educate all those children who make a real effort. Mrs. McCullough stated that there is a great need for strong Home and School Associations in all communities to help parents understand the responsibility and the co-operation they should give their children to help them secure a good education.

Role Play and other program suggestions were presented by Lomond Home and School Association. They impressed with the fact that continuous good programs of a type which every local is interested in, will build strong Home and School Organizations. "Resolutions 1961" was presented by the Arrowwood Home and School Association. They gave information that supports resolutions, procedures of resolutions and how they are finally presented to the government, also informed the locals to study resolutions that have had a motion to rescind and which will be voted on at the 1961 convention.

Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Ruth Frey, editor of the Alberta Home and School News, gave a "Look over the past and into the future," on achievements of Home and School in the past and what they propose to do in the future. They said that Home and School is the largest and fastest growing voluntary organization in Canada, with 33,000 members in Alberta and 350,000 members in Canada. Through the years the Home and School Organization has accomplished at a Canadian level: An advisory board on crime comics; a policy on Indians, entitling them to the same educational, economic and cultural right as every other child; school broadcasts and a national library project. The organization has supported the recommendation of a Master Plan for Community Colleges. In the future the Home and School trend will be toward taking more interest in curriculum. It is believed that the Home and School Council will develop into a much stronger organization. Mrs. McCullough and Mrs. Frey told the meeting that home is the basis of society and Home and School members should place great importance on the home and what it can do for society, that we must build up our prestige in our own communities and homes so we will get first-rate teachers in rural areas. School Superintendent A. L. Schrag gave a very interesting talk on curriculum in high schools, stating that parents should have a good understanding of the curriculum, and that they must try and motivate their children toward some goal.

Wherefore do ye spend money

Lethbridge. The bride and groom's table was centered with a beautiful white tiered wedding cake, and floral arrangements of white,
yellow and mauve chrysanthemums, decorated the table.

The bride, given away by her father, chose for her wedding, traditional, white strapless gown of nylon sheer over taffeta, topped with a nylon balero. The full skirt being accented with pink applique flowers. She wore matching mitts, and the shoulder length veil was held in place by a pearl and rhinestone headpiece and she wore a corsage of pink roses. Her only jewelry was a black alaska diamond necklace and earring set, a gift of the groom.

For her daughters wedding Mrs.
Larsen chose a pale blue, brocade sheath, and wore a corsage of pale pink carnations and accessories.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Chartrand chose a cocoa brown slub silk, with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pale yellow carnations.

A toast to the bride was given by George Eamor, of Calgary, uncle of the bride and was responded to by the groom.

Doug Loose gave the toast to the bridesmaid, the best man, and to the father and mother of the bride, and was responded to by Bert Larsen.

After the reception, all motored back to Ensign, where an open wedding dance was held in the Ensign Community Hall.

For going away, the bride changed to a cocoa brown 2 piece wool dress, with burnt orange accessories, topped with a short grey fur coat.

The young couple spent their honeymoon by motoring to Cranbrook, Kallispell, and other U.S. points, and have since returned and have taken up residence in Milk River.

Wild Game Requires Care In Cooking

The fundamental principles for cooking venison are very similar to those employed in cooking mutton. The main exception, says Pat Mascaluk, District Home Economist with the Alberta Extension Department, is that all the fat must be removed before the meat is cooked. Venison fat has a very unpalatable flavor which it imparts to the meat when it is not removed.

Another tip to remember is that the strong flavor can be eliminated from venison by marinating (soaking) the meat in salad oil and lemon juice for two hours before it is cooked. This practice is especially recommended for venison steaks, says Miss Mascaluk. Before broiling, brush the steaks generously with oil and cook them for seven to ten minutes on each side, depending upon personal tastes.

The roasting pieces of venison are the saddle and the leg. To prevent the meat from being dry after the fat has been removed, either lay strips of fat over the lean side of the meat or cover the entire roast with liquid fat and dredge it with salt, pepper and flour. Then put the meat in a baking pan, the bottom of which has been sprinkled with flour. Cover the bottom of the pan with water after the first five minutes or so of cooking so that the meat will be roasted in a moist heat. Add more water when necessary and baste the meat well every 15 minutes until it is finished. If a double roasting pan is used, basting will not be necessary.

The oven temperature should be 300 degrees F. when the meat is first put in. As soon as the flour in the bottom of the pan has browned (about 5 minutes) reduce the heat to 300 degrees and keep it at this temperature for the remainder of the cooking period.
Miss Mascaluk recommends a cooking time of 20 to 25 minutes a pound, depending upon personal tastes. Make the gravy from the juices in the bottom of the roasting pan and always serve venison with a tart jelly such as currant, wild grape or plumb.

The raffle was won by Lydia Anderson. The last group to have their birthdays celebrated were then entertained. They included Grace Moore, Francis Burns, Connie Stettner, Betty Anderson and Eileen Hurnanen. Games and contests were enjoyed by all members.

The honored guests were then crowned queens and all members were seated at a beautifully decorated table centred with a delicious birthday cake. Those having birthdays were then presented with lovely gifts for which they thanked their secret pals.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting on Dec. 7, will be at the home of Francis Burns. The bedspread which had been raffled was drawn for and won by Hazel Lyckman.

A fly-up ceremony was held at the school auditorium for the Guides and Brownies, when Judy Bodie and Florence Hubka received their Brownie wings from the Brown Owl, Mrs. Alice Knight, in the fairy ring.

Brown Owl cut the ribbon separating the fairy ring from the Guide horseshoe. Then the girls were met by the patrol leaders and captain, welcoming them into the Guide company, after which the Guides sang the closing campfire song and marched out of the room with the two new Guides.

Among those present for the ceremony were the girls' mothers.

Lions Honored

Honored at a recent Lions meeting were the following who received a certificate of a 15-year chartered monarch: Lions John Hubka, first president; Ken Miller; Ivan Ohler; Loren Roemmelle; and Rudy Hubka. All of these five gentlemen have been president.

As the first president John Hubka says, "We organized in December and I was lucky I had a short term until June."

Lion Ken Miller said, "I am very happy to be a Lion." "Yes we have had our ups and downs but I feel our club is stronger now than it has been."

Lion Loren Roemmelle added, "There is not much to add to what has been said." "I am very pleased that you asked me to say a word because I believe one thing we did twelve years ago, was one of the best things we could do, that was stage the carnival. I hope to continue as its chairman."

Lion Ivan Ohler, "There's not much to add, but I will say this: To prospective members it gives you a feeling of satisfaction. It makes work into play, creates good will and fellowship. I hope to continue to enjoy it another thirty years."

The following Lions received ten-year certificates of a chartered monarch: Lions Rob Hubka, Keith Clarke and Dale Clark. Absent but also worthy of these certificates were Lions John McFarland, Gilbert McGinnis, Sid Thompson, Villas Teskey and John West. Missed by international in these certificates was Lion John Letal. Congratulations to all you Lions for your hard work in Lionism.

Community Christmas Card

At a recent meeting Ken Miller, Wes Knight and Gordon Prusky, your Christmas card committee, decided to continue this very worthwhile project again. Last year there were 123 names placed on the card at a dollar a piece. Anyone wishing to check the financial statement may do so at Mr. Prusky's.

This year the price will be the same. A larger number of people are expected to have their names placed on the card, therefore a larger permanent card will be made. Watch for it soon.

The money will be spent for candy for the children on Dec. 23. After the school program that afternoon, about 3:00 p.m., candy bags will be given out by Santa Clause downtown at the Lions outside Christmas tree. If the weather is inclement the bags will be given out at the school. All children are welcome to come and see Santa and receive a bag of candy.

MOSSLEIGH

Get well wishes are extended to James Devolin and Robert Beacom who underwent surgery last week and also to Jock Jolly who is in a hospital for treatment.

A number of Mossleigh Lions attended Vulcan's Charter Night last week.

Arrowwood's volleyball teams played at Mossleigh, Wednesday evening and were defeated. Mossleigh captains were Pat Meadow and John Robinson. Thursday

After a week of snow covered country side a chinook passed through the district on Thursday night and took almost all the snow. The weather was cold for over a week and on one or two days was headed for the zero mark although it kept above that by a few degrees. The warming trend brought by the chinook is most welcome as old-timers were sure we were in for a long old time winter, the kind that would set in with a day or two of light snow gradually getting heavier until it was realized this was winter and everyone settled down for a stay at home session, and the only way to get around was by team and sleigh. The good old days, who wants them?

Mrs. Will Francis went to Vulcan on Friday for a medical check and has been referred to Calgary.

Best wishes and congratulations are sent to Mr. and Mrs. Damien Corbell of Cluny who went to Calgary on Thursday and returned with a chosen son. This is the third child that May and Damien have chosen for their own. Mrs. Corbell before her marriage was May Heather.

Friends will be glad to hear that Jimmie Dew who was recently released from the Calgary Crippled Children's Hospital is now back at school.

Junior Bertschy and his mother went to Calgary on Thursday, taking a load of pork to market.

Ten members and three guests answered the roll call. "What Handicraft Means To Me."

Correspondence included a letter from the adopted boy in Korea and news letter from central office. Mrs. Gilbert Vooys read some resolutions to be presented at the forthcoming convention to be held in Edmonton in December. It is expected that four members will travel to Edmonton for the convention; they are Mrs. Vic Bertrand, Mrs. Freda Prentice, Mrs. Myrtle Monner and Mrs. Laura Sutherland. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Bartach and Mrs. Chester Thompson. A lovely lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Sutherland when the annual exchange of Christmas gifts will be a feature of the afternoon.

Donate Historical Book To Library

The November meeting of the Reid Hill WI was held at the home of Mrs. E. G. McPherson, with Mrs. C. Love and Mrs. D. French as assisting hostess. Mrs. E. Deal presided and was assisted by Mrs. J. French as secretary and Mr. C. L. Kuykendall, treasurer.

Sixteen members and one visitor answered roll call with, "What I Have Been Most Thankful For During 1960," and showed the members considered themselves most fortunate individuals to be living in the midst of plenty and peace.

Plans were finalized for catering to the Lions Charter Night, on Wednesday, Nov. 16. The matter of expenses of the Friendship Day, held annually, was discussed and $2 was voted to be applied to this cost.

The matter of the branch purchasing the popular book "Leaves From The Medicine Tree," a story with a High River locale, was discussed and it was decided to buy it and donate it to the Vulcan and District Library in honor of the late Mrs. Eva Bowie, a life member of Reid Hill WI.

Discussion was held regarding the branch's table cloths, which they have in the past rented to other organizations, and it was decided that in the future the cloths would no longer be available to others. This was due to the responsibility of letting them out and seeing to the return of same, being more than any member felt she wanted to assume.

At the conclusion of the general meeting Mrs. Deal asked Mrs. Agnes McKay to take the chair for the election of officers. Minutes of the last annual meeting read by Mrs. French, after which Mrs. McKay called for nominations for a new slate of officers, with the following results: President, Mrs. Ray Harold, elected by acclamation; vice-president, Mrs. Jack Marshall, elected by acclamation; secretary, Mrs. John French, re-elected; treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Kuykendall, re-elected. Directors: Mrs. H. Rutberg, Mrs. Kuykendall, Mrs. W. A. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. A. Sales.

Mrs. F. J. Mensinger, who was to have entertained the December meeting, announced her regret in not being able to do so as she and her husband will be leaving their home in Lethbridge. Mrs. McKay then very graciously invited the members to her home for the Christmas meeting.

Regular Meeting Ladies Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was held Wednesday, Nov. 16, with a fair attendance. Mrs. A. C. Marsh, the president, was in the chair and conducted the meeting, assisted by acting secretary, Mrs. R. Best.

Correspondence was light and dealt largely with routine matters. Mrs. Ray Beckner, a former member, who has been living at Taber for sometime, was present and asked for a transfer back to the Vulcan Auxiliary.

The sum of $10 was voted to the Explorer Group for their able assistance with the poppy campaign. It was also decided to send a Christmas box to Trevor Mays, who left recently to train with the RCN at Cornwallis, N.S.

An order will be sent immediately for the use of the auxiliary. Members were requested to donate a tea towel each for the auxiliary, same to be brought to the next meeting.

Members are reminded that a Christmas party and exchange of gifts will take place at the next meeting, which will also be the annual one, and election of officers held. Please make a special effort to attend.

Lunch was served by a committee to conclude the evening's program.

NO, JUST FRIENDS

A little refugee was trying to sell a crusty old isolationist a bill of goods. "I only buy from 100 per cent Yankees," said the dubious prospect.

The refugee somehow managed to convince him that he, indeed, was a 100 per cent Yankee, and sold him a fine order. As he was closing his sample case, however, he looked up and saw on the wall pictures of two distinguished looking men—George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. "Fine looking gentlemen," commented the refugee cheerily. "Your partners?"
